

Mark Lehl Music Bio

Mark Lehl is married to wife Roxie of 30 years and has 3 children, Kris the oldest son, Dusty the second oldest Son and only daughter Lacey.

Mark wrote his first song at the age of 18 titled "Can You Tell Me That You Love Me". He has always like guitars and songwriters.

Mark has been inspired by artists like The Beatles, Marty Robbins, Hank Williams and Jim Reeves to name a few.

His songwriting ideas that influence him are Romance in The lives of Couples, Happy experiences and sad experiences.

Mark has said "When good ideas comes, it flows right out and get it onto paper right away and it will be a good song".

Some ideas from life that influence in writing about in his songs maybe From his children to falling in love with his first girlfriend to being jilted by many girlfriends of being jilted by.

The important part of songwriting is melody first and then being able to write songs that people can relate to.

When it comes to wondering whether a song would be a hit or a flop, Mark can tell right away if his song is a potential hit or a flop.

Mark likes to make his songs pretty and able to touch people. His favorite genre is Country and Western.

There are songs that Mark has listened to that each time he hears it, it'll take him back to the time when he first heard it.

The philosophies and goals of the songwriting group, Mark said "Is to help other songwriters in anyways like writing, selling songs and make each songs their best as possible.

Mark doesn't think he'll ever be famous, but would like to sell some songs.

He sometimes likes to listen to songs where the bad times would not be so bad, and the good times better.

Mark's advice for anyone who wants to write and sing songs is "Start writing songs and sing wherever you can".

Finally when it comes to if a song can influence a person's behavior Mark said, "A pretty song can help anyone regardless of genres".

